Chairman Lists Duties To Recent Med. Appointees

Duties and responsibilities of the 62 leading southland physicians and surgeons recently named to serve the Memorial Medical Center of California as consultants to the medical advisory committee this week were outlined by Dr. W. L. Marxer, committee chairman.

Chosen to "offer cooperation and assistance in working out detailed structural and functional problems with the architect and the advisory committee," the consulting group does not comprise nor will they select members of the permanent staff of the planned $8,000,000 hospital facility in Sepulveda Canyon, Dr. Marxer pointed out.

"Through this representative group of consultants, we aim to gain access to all available hospital information prior to construction of Memorial Medical Center to assure Southern California of the best in prevention and treatment of disease through utilization of the most modern equipment skill and techniques," Dr. Marxer said, adding that "the machinery for staff membership selection will be created at a time shortly prior to the actual operation of the completed facility."

Today Donald M. Nelson, president of the Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers and volunteer chairman of the $8,000,000 fund raising committee, is completing selection of divisional leaders who will assist in the gigantic drive.

Torrance Baptist Church Presents Special Program

A special missionary program, arranged by Mrs. C. M. Northrup, student counselor, will be conducted by the Missionary Society of the Torrance Baptist Church Sunday evening. Mrs. Homer Morgan, president of the society, announced the theme would be "Student Preparation for Life Work."

The program, to be held in the church edifice, will consist of a brief survey of the group's own missionary work. A missionary address by the Rev. John A. F. Foote, who will return to Japan where he has spent many years in missionary work, will highlight the program. Young and old are invited to attend the special gathering, Mrs. Northrup announced.

Fall Dinner Of St. Andrew's Men To Be Sept. 18

The first fall dinner meeting of the men of St. Andrew's will be held in the parish house, Wednesday, Sept. 18, starting at 6:30 p.m. The dinner will be served by the Women's Auxiliary committee, with Mrs. Erma Carstens as chairman.

The speaker will be, by popular request, Jack MacFadden, who spoke last spring to the club on the future in Europe with the armed forces rest camps. His subject will be "The Threat of Communism."

This incident which took place at Jacob's well is told in John's Gospel: "There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water; Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink." She replied, "How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria?" Jesus answered, "If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. . . . Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst no more; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him, and shall give him springing up into everlasting life." In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial."
